

SANDIA SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY PARK

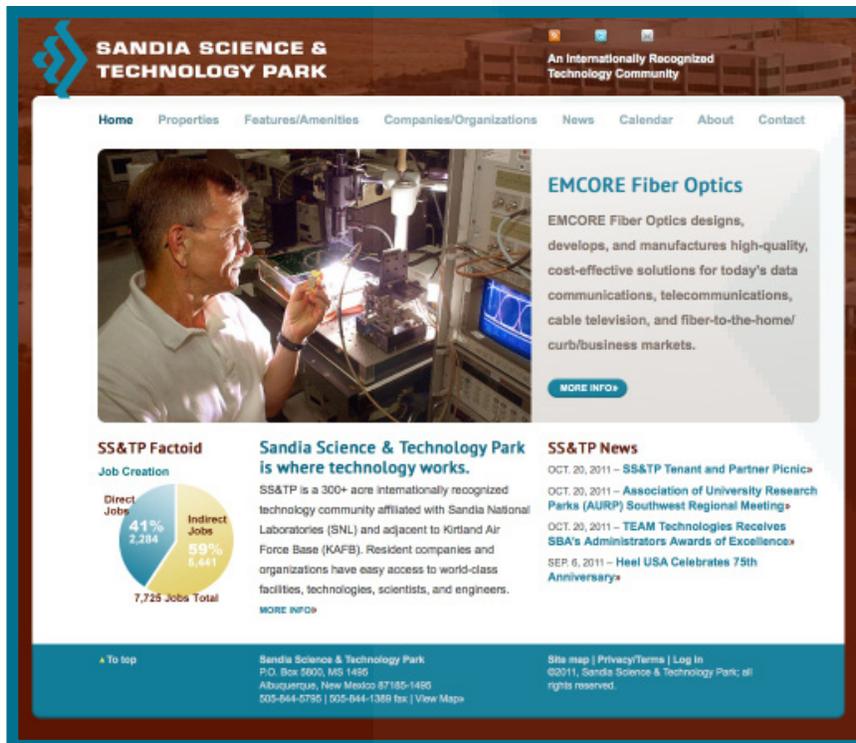

December 2011

The Sandia Science & Technology Park's (SS&TP) new website truly captures an essence of what the Park offers. Creating the website has been a lot of fun for the whole team as we explored what we wanted to say with our web presence and how we wanted to position the public appearance of the SS&TP. This valuable tool will allow our audiences to stay connected with ongoing developments in the Park.
