Company News

The QC Group – The company, which is headquartered in Minnetonka, Minnesota, has recently opened an office/lab in the SS&TP. The QC Group offers quality-related services including dimensional inspection measurements in their A2LA accredited laboratory, reverse engineering with scanning, 3D CAD modeling of legacy tooling and products, color map deviations to CAD, and quality-related training and staffing. Sandia National Laboratories is one of The QC Group's largest customers, making the SS&TP location cost-efficient and convenient.

Recognition

New Mexico State University (NMSU) Distinguished Alumna Jackie Kerby Moore, Executive Director of the SS&TP, was recognized as the 2012 Distinguished Alumna for the College of Business at NMSU on October 26. The distinguished alumni award is given to graduates who have demonstrated great achievement in their field of work and as a result brought honor and distinction to their Alma Mater. Jackie lends her expertise for the advancement of the Arrowhead Research Park at NMSU and is a strong supporter of Arrowhead's Entrepreneurship Center.
