

47 COMPANIES AND ORGANIZATIONS • 2059 EMPLOYEES • $384.8 MILLION OF INVESTMENT

Stone Lion has enjoyed the close proximity to Sandia by being located in the SS&TP, which has allowed quick response and support on current and past contracts. This has proven to be beneficial for both Sandia and Stone Lion in finding solutions and problem solving.

Lance Errickson, CFO, Stone Lion Environmental, LLC

COMPANY AND ORGANIZATION NEWS

Park Company Wins Sandia Contract

Stone Lion Environmental, a small business located in the SS&TP, recently won a new five-year contract at Sandia National Laboratories for disassembly and sanitization operations support. The contract also utilizes Stone Lion's waste management background. Overall, the contract will provide labor and recommendations for associated equipment, materials, and supplies necessary to operate Sandia's New Mexico destruction capability.

RECOGNITION

Park Company Receives Flying 40 Award

Applied Technology Associates (ATA), located in the Park, was recently honored as one of New Mexico's top 2017 revenue-producing companies at the annual Flying 40 technology awards ceremony. ATA employs 307 people and had revenues of $56 million. The Sandia Science & Technology Development Corporation organized and hosted the event which took place at the Albuquerque BioPark Botanic Garden and Aquarium.

New Leadership at KPC

Dominique Foley Wilson is the new executive director of the Kirtland Partnership Committee (KPC). The KPC is a nonprofit organization comprised of civic leaders. It was incorporated in 1996 to preserve, support, and grow Kirtland Air Force Base (KAFB). The organization addresses issues of mutual concern to KAFB, the Pentagon, New Mexico Congressional delegation, City of Albuquerque, Bernalillo County, State of New Mexico, and others. KAFB has a total annual economic impact of $6.7 billion dollars.

RECOGNITION

SS&TP Gets Star of the Southwest Award

The SS&TP was one of nine projects recently recognized with a 2018 Star of the Southwest Award during the Southwest Region Economic Development Association's (SWREDA) Conference in Tulsa, OK. Projects that received the award represent a high level of success by demonstrating economic impact while also playing a meaningful role in the community's future. All of the winning projects were funded, in part, through support from the U.S. Economic Development Administration's Austin regional office. The Mid-Region Council of Governments nominated the Park.

CELEBRATING 20 YEARS OF ECONOMIC GROWTH

The SS&TP is a great example of what can be accomplished in our community when the public and private sectors work together to achieve a "big idea." It also shows that when you mix "vision, human energy, and determination," great things can and do happen.

Dale Dekker, Principal, Dekker/Perich/Sabatini

Jackie Kerby Moore, Executive Director 505.845.8107 jskerby@sandia.gov | Linda von Boetticher, Technical Business Development Specialist and Program Leader 505.844.9462 Ivonboe@sandia.gov
www.sstp.org | 1611 Innovation Parkway SE, Albuquerque, NM 87123 | 505-844-5795

Sandia National Laboratories is a multimission laboratory managed and operated by National Technology & Engineering Solutions of Sandia, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Honeywell International, Inc., for the U.S. Department of Energy's National Nuclear Security Administration under contract DE-NA0003525. SAND No. 2018-8247 M

