

*Congratulations to the new companies and expansions from the past year!
We wish you an innovative, prosperous, and joyful year in 2020!*

NEW COMPANIES

Cooperative Educational Services (CES) is a purchasing cooperative serving all K-12 schools, all higher educational institutions, charter schools, and municipalities and counties in New Mexico. CES held a groundbreaking ceremony for their new 18,000-square-foot building on two acres of land in the SS&TP, and will have 30 employees working in the facility.

Dynetics Technical Solutions provides engineering expertise to support national security missions and information technology services to a variety of critical infrastructure sectors. Dynetics has 7 employees that work in their SS&TP office.

Excelligent is a project management and control consulting firm that is knowledgeable in systems engineering and production processes. Excelligent has 5 employees that work in their SS&TP office.

Peerless Technologies provides a full spectrum of cybersecurity, system engineering, program management and other technology-focused support to government clients. Peerless has 12 employees that work in their SS&TP office.

TechSource is a science and engineering consultancy specializing in program management and technical delivery of nuclear and high-technology projects. TechSource has 5 employees that work in their SS&TP office.

X-Bow Systems is a small launch vehicle provider and technology development company. X-Bow has 11 employees that work in their SS&TP office.

COMPANY EXPANSIONS

Advanced Optical Technologies (AOT) offers multi-dimensional and nano material characterization for complex materials and devices, and develops custom sensors for defense and commercial customers. AOT expanded to 5,000 square feet from their previous 2,800-square-foot office/lab space. AOT has 5 employees that work in their SS&TP office/lab.

Dynetics Technical Solutions expanded to 8,259 square feet from their previous 2,390-square-foot office. With the additional space, Dynetics can now house a total of 24 employees in their SS&TP office.

